

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, undated, with transcript

Note from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. Beinn Bhreagh
Dear Alec:

I promised Melville to go to Waycocomagh with him, thinking I might have trouble when his mother left. I was going Monday, but waited for you, so now I must go today. The boat returns tomorrow. I have telephoned for rooms at Mitchell's Hotel and take Christine with me.

Much love, Mabel
